Last Meeting

Finally Kev revealed all, that is his Alaska trip. Wild country, and quite a list of trout, salmon and char species. Looks like he's going back again. Does he want anyone to carry his fly rod and dress him in his waders?

This Meeting

I was planning to have some video on my week at Baffle Creek, but there wasn't anything to video. The fishing was abysmal, a week of screaming SE and NE winds, plus a day of motor dramas put paid to my hopes. At this late date, and a lot of members at Glenlyon, it might be a short night.

Forthcoming Trips

Bass & Mary River Cod Tagging November 21st/22nd/23rd – Our annual trip in conjunction with LAFMA, camping on Mark Ward's property beside the Albert River at Kerry. Lloyd will sending out a trip sheet. (we do need some rain)

Club Christmas Party December 6th – Brad's residence, 26 Myra St, Kingston at 6pm. BYO drinks, meat etc, salads supplied.

Lower Albert River Shark? Trip January 26th – Lower Albert from Patersons Rd ramp or down from the Alan Wilkie bridge. Barbeque at Ray Bricknalls place just up the road. Trip captain, Ray Bricknall.

Maroon Dam 13/15th February – Lake Maroon Holiday Park? Jeff Maddalena is the trip captain.

Baffle Creek Week 10th/17th October

My recent trip for the reasons mentioned was very disappointing. Two weeks before the fish were going gangbusters from all reports. My week they just shut down. There were fish caught by others, a 57cm Barra, 80cm Queenfish and 58cm Grunter, but these were isolated catches. I took the opportunity to check out the clubhouse, formerly a bowls club. The cost is $1000 a week for 4 people, and $150 a week per head extra over the 4. It can sleep up 8 in beds and bunks, and plenty of room for camp stretchers if it goes over the 8 or if you don't like sharing a double bed. Three bedrooms, commercial grade kitchen and big common room with club style drink fridges and a cold room. Two shower and toilet rooms, three shower cubicles in each. See pictures.
